Want to be a playwright? Join the...

ATP Student Writers Group

The ATP Student Writers Group is a unique opportunity for high school students to explore the craft of playwriting with professional playwrights and guest artists from across Canada.

WHEN: November 18, 2019 – May 3, 2020

The group meets every Monday evening from 7pm-9pm

WHERE: The ATP Boardroom in Arts Commons (Stage Door, 220 9th Ave S.E.) unless otherwise specified.

WHO: The group is open to students in grades 9-12 and students can participate multiple years in a row to continue honing their skills.

COST: $150 per student. If the cost is a barrier, there are many options that ATP offers, so please speak to Talore Peterson if this is the only thing keeping you from registering.

WHAT YOU'LL COVER: During this six month program, a select group of students will have the chance to be mentored in playwriting by a professional playwright, guest directors and dramaturgs, as well as visiting playwrights from across Canada. Members are also invited to attend all the productions in our 2019/2020 season, and will receive exclusive invites behind the scenes to rehearsals and other professional theatre events.

PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT: During this course each student will develop an original 10 min play. Their work will receive professional dramaturgical support as well as a full day of workshoping with Calgary's finest directors and actors.

The course will culminate with our annual staged reading in April 2020, where the new works will be showcased in a professional public staged reading. This year the students work will also be shared with the community during the annual Jane's Walk Weekend May 2 & 3, 2020.
