

Tofino Adventure

Whale Watching, Sea Kayaking and Surfing in Tofino with a 4-Night Stay and Airfare for 2

Hidden in an ancient landscape on the west coast of British Columbia is the village of Tofino. Here you will experience the beautiful landscape including wonderful beaches, rainforests, and quiet, peaceful inlets. Tofino has a rich food and art scene. Resfeber Travels will provide you with the best places to eat and most amazing things to do while you are there.

Tofino has a long whale watching season, running from March to November. Gray Whales are the most common species that you will see but there are orcas, sea otters, seals and birds. You will be treated to one of the best whale watching tours that will let you encounter these wonderful creatures in a small tour boat tour. Sit back and enjoy as this will be one of your trip highlights.

Tofino is also famous for their beaches and their surfing. Enjoy a small group surfing lesson with an amazing local company that has a passion for the area and for surfing.

Sea kayaking is a great way to experience what the outdoors has to offer. There are several tours you can take but the most famous is around the Harbor Islands. This tour is a wonderful way to explore the spectacular scenery. Learn what makes this area so fascinating, from the cultural history to the diverse ecology. While paddling, don't miss the Tofino harbor, which is surrounded by a beautiful rainforest. Encounter some of the marine wildlife while exploring the beautiful inlets.
